Winners In F.R.C.C. Tennis Tourney

The teams of Violet Roberts - Jackie Smith and Mitch Eggleston - Tommy O'Brien received top honors in the ladies' and men's doubles tournament at FRCC last week end.

The Roberts-Smith team defeated Ruby Ferguson and Carol Cozart in the double elimination event to capture the title from last year's champions. The first meeting of these two teams was in the excessive heat of Saturday afternoon in a 3-hour closely fought match ending 6-4, 6-7, 7-6, Roberts-Smith. This match was followed by a two-hour decision between Janet Wilhoit -Frances Lewis and Jennette Spahr - Gail Thompson. The 5-7, 6-2, 6-4 score put Wilhoit-Lewis in fourth place and advanced Spahr-Thompson to a Sunday morning consolation match against Ferguson-Cozart. That 6-1, 6-0 match score gave Spahr-Thompson third place and put Ferguson-Cozart in the championship game. That Sunday afternoon match went to a 6-2 Ferguson-Cozart lead but Roberts-Smith rallied with a 5 game winning streak to take the first set 7-5. Though most games went to deuce the second set ended 6-2, giving Roberts-Smith the match and the ladies double championship.

For the first time in a double elimination tournament at FRCC, a team came from the consolation bracket to force the championship to an extra match. The teams of Eggleston-O'Brien and Ferguson-Tillery met for the first time Saturday afternoon in a closely played contest, 6-2, 6-7, 6-4. Fred and Tom Roberts, Eggleston-O'Brien went on to meet the team of Bruce Cowan-John Spahr in a closely fought match of 7-5, 6-3. Eggleston-O'Brien. After their victory in the first consolation match, 6-4, 6-4, the Ferguson-Tillery team advanced to defeat the team of Gene Hartzell - Rick Thompson, 6-1, 6-3. This gave the latter team fourth place and advanced the winners to meet Cowan-Spahr. This 7-5, 6-3 decision gave Cowan-Spahr third place and sent Ferguson - Tillery to meet Eggleston-O'Brien in the championship. Playing their third match of the day, the consolation duo pulled out a 6-3, 2-6, 6-4 victory and forced the championship to a third match between the two teams. Played Monday night at 6 p.m. the championship match was closely played to each point. All but one game went to deuce, at least once, neither team able to manage more than a two game lead for even a short time. So evenly played, the championship was in question until the last point was scored. The 6-4, 6-4 score gave Eggleston-O'Brien the men's double championship. Second place going to Ferguson - Tillery.

Though drawing only 12 teams the tournament provided fun and excitement for players and spectators. Played in excessive heat, there was still four matches extending 3 sets and 3 sets decided by a tie-breaker. A special note of appreciation goes to Tom and Janet Wilhoit who did such a good job as tournament directors.

The next tennis tournament will be for junior players (age 15 and under) to be held July 23-24. August 6-7 will bring a "Married Doubles" tournament for the adults. Check the club house for details.
